FCI Berlin is a new institution and now is a great time to begin your law enforcement career!

- There are numerous opportunities for advancement within the Bureau.
- Employees may stay at an institution for as long as they like, or take advantage of a variety of opportunities to move around the country. The choice is yours.
- We offer a team-oriented working environment with the motto, “We help each other succeed.”
- Berlin, New Hampshire is an exciting location with various activities for everyone.
- The Bureau of Prisons provides excellent benefits and competitive salaries to their employees.

The Department of Justice provides reasonable accommodations to applicants with disabilities. If you need a reasonable accommodation for any part of the application and hiring process, please notify the hiring/servicing personnel office. The decision to grant a reasonable accommodation will be made on a case-by-case basis. Selection will be made without discrimination for any non-merit reason such as race, color, religion, national origin, age, physical disability, marital and/or parental status, membership in an employee organization, sex, or sexual orientation. The Bureau of Prisons is an equal opportunity employer.

“It is our vision that FCI Berlin is a much sought after work site given our reputation for outstanding morale and high standards of excellence.”

Deborah G. Schult, Ph.D

FCI BERLIN

-Welcome to the Federal Correctional Institution (FCI) Berlin, located in the beautiful White Mountain region of New Hampshire. FCI Berlin is a Medium security level facility with a Minimum security level Satellite Camp (SCP). Both facilities house adult, male inmates.

- FCI Berlin is nestled on 707 acres just north of the White Mountains and east of the Androscoggin River. The expansive facility encompasses approximately 680,000 square feet of inside building area including the FCI, SCP, Garage, Warehouse, Powerhouse, Firing Range, and the Staff Training Center.

-Although FCI Berlin does not have a UNICOR operation, the Medium security level facility offers the 500 hour Residential Drug Abuse Program and both facilities (FCI & SCP) offers a variety of programming opportunities aimed at successful reentry into the community.

FCI Berlin is actively recruiting for various positions:

Correctional Officers
Teachers
Psychologists
Mid-Level Practitioners
And Many Others
